NEW BUSINESS

Skate Park Update – Josh reported getting a new design from American Ramp Company (ARC) and holding a meeting at Borough Hall April 13 @ 7 p.m. Parents and skate boarders will attend. They are trying to recruit elementary and middle school students to help raise funds for skate plaza which will be around 700,000 just for phase one.

Dog Park Update – Tom Bancroft related that the good news is after three different proposals, a location across from Landis near the windmill was chosen, 57 ft. in from sidewalk. Board voted unanimously to support the location. The Bark and Wine Event was a big success. He anticipates ground breaking March 20 opening beginning of May 2011. Also continuing the brick sale.

OTHER BUSINESS

Allison Hamilton from Bucks County Conservation District viewed the Park System. Will be getting back in to us with assessment.

Family Friday: March 11, 2011 will be bingo. As many volunteers that can make it should plan to attend. February's Mad Science Event had record attendance and profit.

Band Shell: Josh will bring recommendations to next meeting and encouraged all members to research band shells too. Also, look around park system to suggest places to build.
