PUBLIC FORUM: None

APPROVAL OF MINUTES: Minutes of the November 7, 2012 Meeting were approved as written. Barbara Hollenbach made the motion which was seconded by Betty Jarrett

OLD BUSINESS: None

NEW BUSINESS:

BAND SHELTER: Josh reported that businessman, Tom Skiffington of ReMax 440 is interested in pursuing getting the band shelter built. Josh to e-mail the board to look at places in the park system and will keep board updated on ideas.

DOG PARK UPDATE: Report by Nelson; Upcoming Fund Raiser Bark and Wine on February 9 being planned. Tickets available at $20.00.

FAMILY FRIDAY: Josh confirmed volunteers for December 14 Mad Science Holidays- Barbara, Nelson, Mary, Chris, Rich and Delia volunteered to help.

ADVERTISEMENTS AT MENLO: An idea was brought to the board by Josh at the suggestion of a councilperson about selling printed signage as advertising to local businesses to be put up around Menlo Aquatic Center. After a discussion the unanimous recommendation by the Park and Recreation Board to Perkasio Borough Council was they not sell printed advertising to put up at Menlo. The Park and Recreation Board felt very strongly that the revenue generated would not justify changing the park-like setting of the aquatic center.

SKATE PARK: The grand re-opening of the Skate Park back in its original site is scheduled for December 12, 2012 at 3:30 with ribbon cutting by the mayor at 4:15. There will be other borough council members present and Park & Rec board members encouraged to attend as well. Rich volunteered to attend on the board's behalf. There will be food donated by local businesses as well as newspaper people coming.

CHRISTMAS TREE GIFT EXCHANGE: Perkasio Park and Rec not interested in participating in this kind of event at this time. May revisit this idea again in the future.
